

Looking for the DATA SYSTEM MAINTENANCE SPECIALIST

By joining our team, you will ensure Compensa Life Vienna Insurance Group SE Lithuanian Branch with high quality and effective Data System Maintenance Specialist Function.

MAIN RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Support for existing data systems maintenance processes
- Timely provision of required data flows
- Daily supervision of data control processes
- Identifying the causes of system failures, related event sequences, and finding solutions
- Testing and suggestions for new and basic functionalities
- Documentation of processes, actions, results and technical solutions
- Analysis and processing of available data as needed

QUALIFICATION REQUIREMENTS:

- Education in technical science (IT knowledge, can be a student)
- Fundamentals of software life cycle and development principles
- Basics of relational DBMS
- Ability to understand and write standard SQL queries
- Requirements gathering, technical specification documentation skills
- Good English language skills, knowledge of technical concepts
- Analytical thinking, attention to details, searching for reasons and best solutions
- IS testing and troubleshooting experience would be an advantage

COMPANY OFFERS:

- Flexible time job (full time, part time, flexible hours)
- Being a part of international team and supportive work environment
- Various possibilities to support your personal development and growth
- Motivating salary, employee bonuses package

APPLY HERE

CONFIDENTIALITY GUARANTEED

If You are interested, please apply by sending your CV in English. Confidentiality is guaranteed.

We guarantee the confidentiality of all personal data of the applicant. By applying you agree to provide your personal data, which will be processed for the purpose of conducting the selection process. More information on data processing please find in our Privacy Policy.